Create a Character Community page on your website:

- Add our collage icon, attributes information and our website link www.charactercommunity.com to your own organization's web page.
- Click on our C4O Resources web page for resource materials.
- If you already have a Character Community web page, review it and refresh it with new material from our C4O Resources section.
- Add photos of any recent character events to personalize your Character Community web page.

Encourage your employees to participate in:

- Recognizing fellow employees for Random Acts of Character.
- Create a ballot form for submitting the information and recognize several of these folks each month.
- Tie in with the monthly attribute for more impact.
- Use our monthly attribute card to focus the Random Acts of Character.

Summary

The three key ways your organization can help inspire good character are:

- Add or refresh your Character Community web page.
- Encourage your employees to Connect With Us.
- Recognize Random Acts of Character.

We are looking forward to seeing your organization show us your good character!
